Swindled Coed Helps to Indict Phony CIA Man

A Kent State University coed, bilked of $6,000 by a man posing as a Central Intelligence agent, has helped, by her cooperation with FBI authorities, to bring an indictment against him.

The girl is Mary Ann Hutch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hutch, 760 Boardman - Canfield Rd., Youngstown.

She gave the $6,000 last year to help in the fight against Castro in Cuba, according to the charges brought against Carl C. Ekelof, alias Carl C. Carlstrom. He is being held in Los Angeles. Miss Hutch presently resides in KSU's South Terrace Hall.

The indictment against Ekelof was brought in Miami.
